

NORTHWEST TENNESSEE PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB MINUTES August 3, 2010

The August meeting of the NWTPC was held at the Obion County Library on Tuesday, August 3, at 6:30. President Richard Griffin presided. Twenty members and 2 guests were present.

The program was given by Bud Grimes, Director of Public Relations at UTM. It was entitled "Images Are Everything at UT Martin." He talked about how important photography is and showed how photographs are used in all aspects of UTM publicity.

Treasurer Roy Cates reported a balance of $2,544.15.

Upcoming meetings and field trips were discussed. They are:

Aug 21 field trip – meet across from Blue Bank Restaurant in the park 5:45 am for sunrise photos. If you'd rather sleep late, meet at Boyette's at 11:00. Afterwards, we'll drive up the Great River Road to shoot an old abandoned tugboat.

Sept. 7 meeting – UTM library at 6:30 – The program will be presented by Goetz Seifert. Entitled "The New Berlin", he'll be talking about how Berlin was rebuilt after the fall of the Berlin Wall.

Sept 11 field trip – Intertribal Pow-Wow at Hopkinsville, KY

Oct .5 meeting – UTM library at 6:30 - Leona Parks and Linda Harrelson will present the program about their experiences during their recent photography workshop in Steamboat, CO.

Oct field trip – TBA

Nov. 2 meeting – UTM library at 6:30 - Alan Whited, the Reelfoot National Wildlife Refuge Manager, will present the program.

The photo topic for the September meeting is "people."

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m..

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Harrelson, secretary
